Report Cards: Report Cards for the third marking period were posted on the Parent Portal. If you have not seen your students report card please go to the portal to view it. If you have any trouble accessing the portal please contact the office.

Celebrations: This month we celebrated Autism Acceptance Week by learning about autism and participating in various lessons and activities. We also celebrated Earth Day by having some classes plant seeds and having everyone participate in various activities and lessons around the theme of "Restore our Earth."

Virtual Students: We will be welcoming back the virtual students who have decided to return to in person instruction on May 3rd. We will not be accepting anymore requests to return to in person instruction for the remainder of the school year.

Reading: In the next few weeks, teachers will be assessing students on their reading abilities. One huge factor that contributes to a child's educational success is how much they read. Reading at school and at home is so important. Please encourage your child to read every night with you, to another family member or even to a stuffed animal or pet. Have them retell the story and tell their audience what they like or didn't like about the story.

Teach Appreciation: May 4, 2021 is National Teacher Appreciation Day! Thank a teacher that has made an impact in your life with a note, card or email.
